Dear Lucille,

We have decided to let you use the enclosed, the translation of the postal card. As I recall, you have a copy of the original.

Will you, however, put the following with it? (Or something like it)

Reprinted with permission,
All rights reserved.

There isn't anything very personal or newsworthy about this communication; I think the writer was just having fun with his brother.

I hope you are able to keep cool this summer! Today is very liveable; one can feel almost human again. Perhaps you are enjoying the cool breezes of Michigan?

It was good yo see you last spring. THanks again for your good help for Susanne!

Sincerely,

Kay

thanks for letting me see a copy of your "Geneal Journal"! I liked the lead story especially.

because of the ox and the cows. I sowed three sacks of corn and half a sack of wheat. For the summer harvest I can sow two and a half sacks of oats and one and a half sack of barley. There was not exactly very much R----[?] but they were all sowed[?]. I planted 38 sacks, I threshed 9½ sacks of corn and 12½ sacks of oats. Here with us in the "Vogtland" it is now winter and a thin snow cover lies over everything. In your country it is probably getting cooler also. Does Heiserling want to spend the winter here or does he want to go back? The trip is beginning to become less dangerous. Mr. Baumann who lives a good hour from me in Burzk[?] is well. He has two children; we get together very seldom since he is kept very busy with school-----, ----- has few contacts except with me and neighbor Weigelt in Tauendorf [?], and since I no longer have a horse, I do not get out much and live like a hermit. My [pastoral] office, the farming and the family keep me very busy. Your wife probably prefers to live in town even if for the ---- she prefers life in the country. To be sure, the city offers many conveniences which we must do without, in the long run. Also the ---- are easier to reach. As for the church, and the political scene in the old homeland, you probably are informed from the newspapers. Do you get them every month? You must be in contact with Dettelsau. They have sent several pupils to Australia. A small free kitchen has been established, it is attached to the Mission. Now may God bless you,'my boy'.* Kindest greetings from us to you. Farewell and let us hear from you again soon. In faithful love, your Carl. Crispendorf, the 6th of November, 1876. S.D.G. [To God alone be Glory.]

[* English]

My dear brother! First of all, God's blessing on you! I have your dear letter of September 7 and am glad that you and yours are well. I would be still happier if you had given me the opportunity to see you face to face this summer. According to what Jüngerling has said at home, we may hope to welcome you and your family next summer in Germany. A.D.V.B. [As the good Lord wills?] To be sure, the reason we did not write you was that we expected you to come. Heiserling [?] is in Bengshausen as ---- writes often, and he has told me much about you. I have not ----- him believe Heiserling whether he will visit me since, after all, it is far;Dr. Barbarossa [?] from--------is. Brands Julius[?] or rather Justus Zülch[?] was confirmed with me and was----. Mann zu [?] ----of -----he returns;---- geeet the countryman Stähling[?] whom I saw in '73 in Melsungen at the daughter's. A year ago today my brother-in-law Eduard Sta----arrived here with his little daughter. Later, on the trip to New York, he experienced the catastrophe on the Deutschland. My wife's relatives, and mine, are all well. During this time Eduard [which Eduard?] wanted to travel home again to ------. Lina also wanted to visit father. They have moved away from Holzhausen, since the farm they rented ------- and they now live in Marburg. Reinhard is looking for a place again, Emilie is still in Munich, Marie was again in Chemnitz at Ruppels, as Eugenia was ill. I do not know if she is home again, maybe she traveled with Eduard. Julius has three pupils at present so the Institution is keeping its head above water. These are bad times here, as well as over there. Here too, the----- must squeeze------with the high prices, especially the Gu----- who do not get any additional pay because of the higher prices; for instance, meat costs exactly double what we paid fifteen years ago. Because of the unlimited free-trade, and doing away with the tax, one can no longer afford servants here. In the country one can hardly get any help at all as everyone pushes into the cities where there is entertainment. If only we do not become involved in the Eastern sins. Deus pron debit [God forbid?] Father's letters sound happy. He is well, still very fit for his age in spite of his rheumatism. He and Uncle Carl are twins, and the uncle, too, is hale and hearty. What is he doing there, and how does he make a living? Has he again taken up his medical practice? Please give him and our cousin our best regards. My family and I are, the Lord be thanked, also well, all three of us. In ----- a new lease for our pastor's farm[?] -----has started well. I have kept a little more land and meadow, so that I without ---- will be able to keep two cows. Just now I have a couple of two year olds. Yet I shall hire a girl at Candlemas
